Suzuki Method International

INTRODUCTION

FOR THE STUDENT: This material is part of the worldwide Suzuki Method of teaching. Companion recordings should be used with these publications. In addition, there are piano accompaniment books that go along with this material.

FOR THE TEACHER: In order to be an effective Suzuki teacher, a great deal of ongoing education is required. Your national Suzuki association provides this for its membership. Teachers are encouraged to become members of their national Suzuki associations and maintain a teacher training schedule, in order to remain current, via institutes, short and long term programs. You are also encouraged to join the International Suzuki Association.

FOR THE PARENT: Credentials are essential for any teacher that you choose. We recommend you ask your teacher for his or her credentials, especially listing those relating to training in the Suzuki Method. The Suzuki Method experience should be a positive one, where there exists a wonderful, fostering relationship between child, parent and teacher. So choosing the right teacher is of the utmost importance.

In order to obtain more information about the Suzuki Method, please contact your country's Suzuki Association, the International Suzuki Association at 3-10-15 Fukashi, Matsumoto City 390, Japan, The Suzuki Association of the Americas, 1900 Folsom #101, Boulder, Colorado 80302 or Summy-Birchard Inc., c/o Warner Bros. Allegro aperto ($\text{♩} = 132\text{--}144$)

Tutti

The sheet music consists of ten staves of musical notation for a solo instrument (likely violin) and orchestra. The key signature is A major (two sharps). The time signature is common time. The tempo is Allegro aperto ($\text{♩} = 132\text{--}144$). The section is labeled Tutti. Measure numbers are indicated on the left side of each staff: 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29, 33, and 36. The music features various dynamic markings such as f (fortissimo), p (pianissimo), and s (sforzando). The notation includes sixteenth-note patterns, eighth-note pairs, and various rhythmic figures. The score concludes with an all'acca instruction.

第一樂章

Allegro aperto

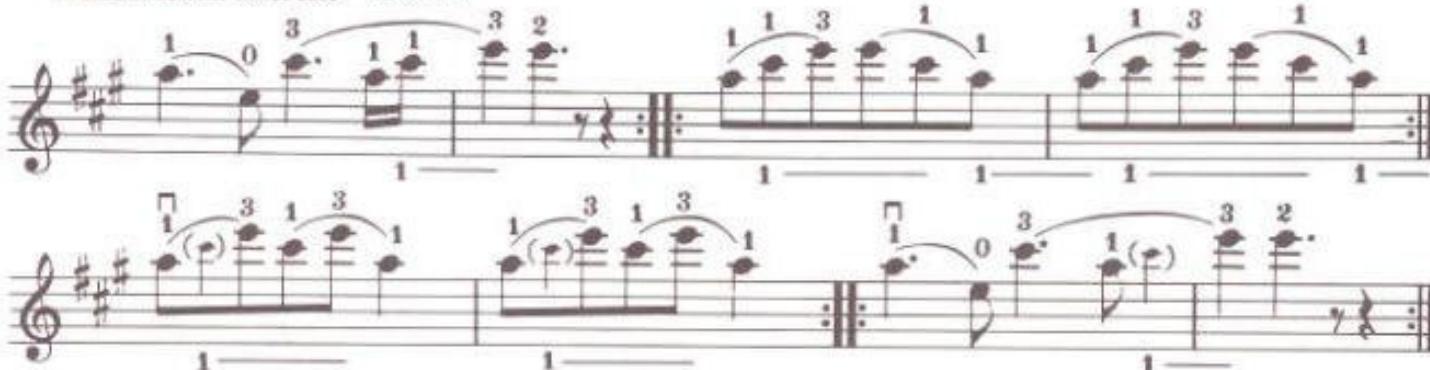

A

Point of Practice

Many pupils, when they have learned to play, are apt to become self-satisfied and give up further practice. But if they ever want to cultivate superior ability, they still need to continue their daily practice, always trying to improve their performance, even if they already can play 'correctly'. One should never forget that one's ability will be fostered in proportion to the amount of one's diligent and steady practice.

Fundamental Exercise 基本練習

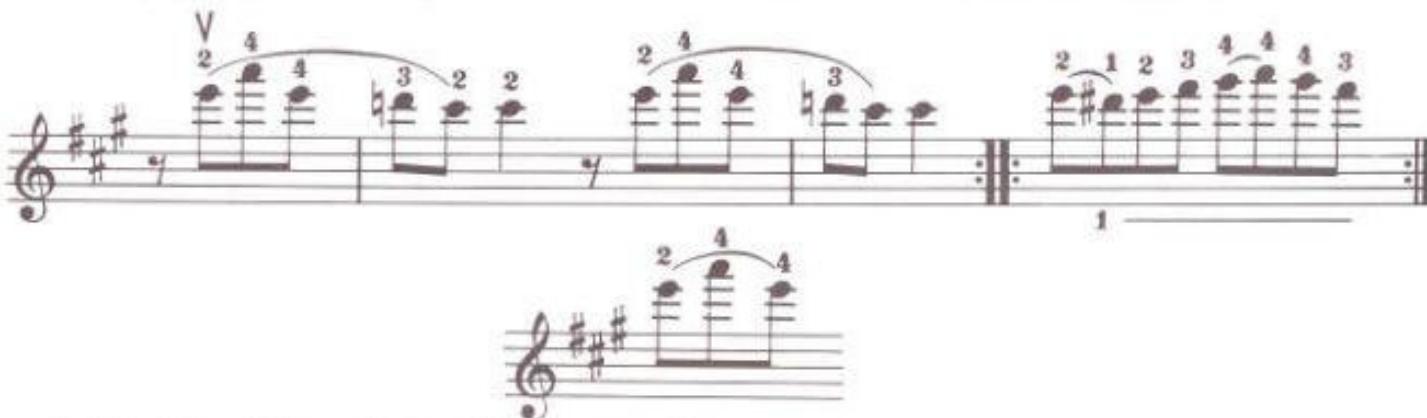

Practise each exercise over and over, and do not proceed to the next section before you are sure of playing this one well. Each succeeding repetition should be practised in this way.

Note: play slowly and accurately.

学習の仕方

どうにか弾けるようになると、多くの人は安心して訓練をやめてしまいがちです。高い能力を得た人はまちがいなく弾けるようになってからも、さらによりよくなるために毎日繰り返しているのです。

本当の能力というものは、どれほどそれを繰り返したかによって育っていくものなのです。

In this placing of fingers, the descending movement of the fourth finger (4-4) is likely to become unsteady if it is done by moving the fourth finger independently. In order to give it stability, learn to change position with the first finger following together with the fourth.

この抑え方は、単に4-4だけで下ると不安定です。そのため1の指をつけたままでポジションの移動を訓練し安定感をつくります。

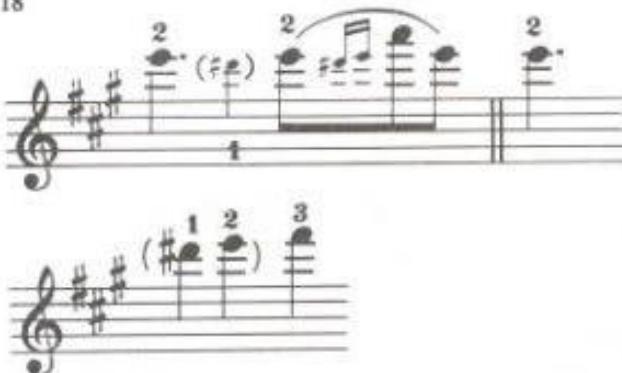

4の指を押えたとき、2をはなして1-4の形にし、そして1-4のまま下っていきます。

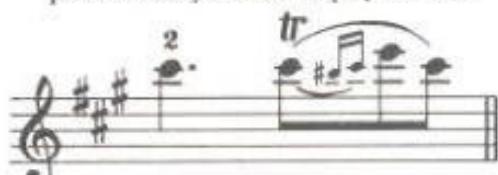

When you have placed the fourth finger, raise the second finger to form the shape 1-4, and continue to descend with this shape unchanged.

Note: Where the indication tr. is given, first practise without the ornament, and then practise as designated.

注意：トリル記号のあるものは、はじめトリルをつけないで、まず上記のように原形を練習して、その後に装飾をつけること。

Note: Make sure that the two fingers are prepared in place before you start to play the trill.

Point of Practice

For detailed explanation, the position of the right hand to play should be slightly raised toward the position of double stopping on the E and the A strings. Then change strings by slightly raising the right hand fingers (which hold the bow) when the third finger is moved to the A string. The wrist should not be raised.

Preparation of the First Finger

The following instruction for practice will serve further to improve you in executing downward changes of position.

While the second finger in third position is playing this passage, keep the first finger attached to the second finger, and the moment you place the fourth finger, lift the second finger alone, leaving the first finger where it is. In other words, the movement which starts with the fourth finger should proceed downward led by the first finger, thus changing to the first position through shifting from the first to the second finger. If the second finger of the third position were given the initiative in such change of position, (that is, the fourth, the third and the second fingers were placed separately one after another centering around the second finger), the pitches would easily become faulty because you will then have to place the first finger anew, which in turn must be immediately shifted to the second finger of the first position.

This should always be kept in mind as it is applicable to many cases appearing later.

このとき1の指をあらかじめ押えておくこと。

To play this figure, the first finger should be placed beforehand.

トリルを弾く前に3の指を迅速に押える練習をすること。このとき前以って1の指が押えてあることは最も効果的である。

Before actually playing the trill, go through the exercise for rapid placing of the third finger. This figure can be executed most effectively if the first finger is placed in advance.

注意：トリルは事前に2つの指の準備完了を行なうこと。

前例と同じように2のときに1の指をつけることと、トリルのための3の指を速く準備する練習が必要です。

In playing this figure, you again need to place the first and second fingers together and rapidly get the third finger prepared for the trill.

学習の仕方

E弦からA弦へ移るときの左手の練習で、A弦→D弦、D弦→G弦の場合も同じです。

Train the left hand for changing strings from E to A. Also practise change of strings from A to D, and from D to G.

くわしく説明すると、 のときに右手の位置がE弦、A弦の重音を弾く位置へかすかにあげられ、3の指でA弦に移るときに右手指(1)をもつ指)がわずかに上へあがることによって移弦をする。手首が上へあがるのはいけない。

同じようにそれぞれの移弦の練習をゆっくりと練習する。

In the same way practice changing strings carefully on each pair of strings.

1の指の準備

下向へのポジション移動の熟練のために、練習の仕方を参考に記しておきましょう。

諸のように、サード・ポジションの2の指を弾いているときに2の指に1の指C#をつけておき、4の指を弾くと同時に1の指だけを残して2の指を離す。すなわち4の指からの進行を、1の指を基本として下行して、1から2の指(ファースト・ポジション)へ移す練習をする。サード・ポジションで2の指を基本にして4-3-2と弾いていくと、1の指を新たに押さなければならず、押えるとすぐにまたファースト・ポジションの2の指へ戻っていくことになり、不安定になるからです。

このことは今後いろいろな場合に応用ができます。

The sheet music consists of six staves of violin notation. The first five staves are standard staff notation with fingerings (1, 2, 3, 4) and dynamics (V, 1, 3, 2). The sixth staff shows a simplified version of the notes and fingerings. A note in the third staff has a bracket labeled 'A.....'. A note in the fourth staff has a bracket labeled '3 1'. A note in the fifth staff has a bracket labeled '3 2 1 4 3 2'. A note in the sixth staff has a bracket labeled '3 1'. In the second staff, there is a dynamic 'mf' below a note. In the fifth staff, there is a dynamic 'V' above a note. In the sixth staff, there is a dynamic 'V' above a note.

Join the second finger to the third finger.

Prepare the first finger beforehand.

あらかじめ1の指を準備する。

While playing the open E string, put the first finger at its proper place on the A string, and prepare it in advance so that the 1-4 fingering may be fixed accurately. Always try to obtain exact pitches, aiming at still more improved and refined performance.

E弦の開放を弾いている間に1の指をA弦に正しく位置し、1-4の指使いが正確に押えられるように、あらかじめ準備する。

Practice should always be done thoughtfully and with the greatest possible care.

訓練は常に細心の注意と合理的の上に行なわれなければならない。

IPoint of Practice

Practise each fundamental exercise twenty times every day, and as you get skilful, gradually increase the speed.

学習の仕方

それぞれの基本練習は毎日20回くらい繰り返して弾き、熟練するにしたがって速度を速くする。

This is how I usually study a piece of music myself. Daily repetition will make it seem easier and easier, and that means genuine ability is being developed. If you continue to practise every day even after you have learned to play fairly well, you will certainly gain substantial proficiency, which then will grow to be superior capability applicable to any piece of music.

私が学習するときはいつもこのようにやっています。毎日繰り返してやっている間にだんだんやさしく感じられてくるようになります。それが実力の育った証拠です。一心演奏できてもなお毎日繰り返している間に、本当の能力が高められ、他の曲の場合においても応用できる、すぐれた能力へ育っていくわけです。

J

Point of Practice

While Joachim gave the above fingering to this passage, the second position, as shown below, was indicated by Karl Klingler, my old teacher. The merit of the latter might be that there is no positional unsteadiness in the first and the second beats of the third measure.

Practice this exercise with accurate time and pitch. Play slowly at first according to your ability, and gradually add speed. Unreasonable acceleration will cause unevenness.

Point of Practice

Direct your attention to grazioso performance in practising this passage, and aim at beautiful expression.

Consider for yourself whether the figure  should be played like  or otherwise, after actually listening to various excellent performances.

The above fingering is Klingler's indication, and the following is Joachim's. Either fingering will result in fine bowing, depending on how it is executed.

p lusingando

Point of Practice

While this passage is not necessarily as difficult to play as it looks, there are very few pupils who play it beautifully and perfectly. The most important point in practice is to have sufficient drill on such passages if you are to attain the finest possible performance. Listen carefully to virtuosos' performances and try to realize how they achieve their exquisite niceties.

However hard you may practice every day, it would be impossible to become skilful in a month or so. This passage will provide a great deal of study material.

学習の仕方

楽譜どおりに弾くことはそれほどむずかしいことではない。しかしこれを美しく立派に弾く人は極めて少ない。名手達の演奏に注意し、いかに妙味を發揮して弾いてるかに気づかなければならない。たとえ毎日練習しても短期間の訓練で立派になり得るわけがありません。この所は最も学習のために役にたつよい小節であると思う。

Fundamental Exercise 基本練習

The bowing indication at lusingando (p) is what Joachim designated. Try it.

We should always appreciate and carefully study what has been recommended by Joachim, a great musician of profound and varied attainments.

Pierre Rode's Chromatic Fingering

Pierre Rode, noted for his violin concertos, was born in 1744 at Bordeaux, France and died in 1830 near Damazan. He was a pupil of Viotti and was a professor at the Paris Conservatoire. The excellent chromatic fingering he developed has now come to be accepted by many people.

Basically it is made up as follows:

(Ascending) 1 2 3 2 3 4 0
(Descending) 0 4 3 2 3 2 1 0

学習の仕方

ピエール・ロード (Pierre Rode) の Chromatic Fingeringについて。

バイオリン協奏曲でピエール・ロードの名前はよく人に知られている。彼は Viotti の弟子で 1774 年フランスのボルドーで生まれ、パリ音楽院の教授になり、1830 年ダマゾンで没した大家である。彼の考案したすぐれた半音階の指使いは、現在多くの人々に用いられるようになってきた。

上行 1 2 3 2 3 4 0
下行 0 4 3 2 3 2 1 0 } を基本としたものである。

正確な音程へ熟練すること。
Practise until you can be sure of obtaining correct pitches.

The chromatic fingering is characterized by the clarity of each tone, which is produced without letting fingers slide, and which is as clear as if the chromatic scale were played on the piano keyboard.

半音階指使いの特長は、指をすらすことなく各音鮮明に、ちょうどピアノの鍵盤上で半音階を弾くように鮮かであること。

I

Point of Practice

The change of strings is so difficult here that many pupils become desperate or confused. To gain sufficient skill, it is particularly necessary to learn how to count correctly and to attain enough technique for changing strings.

Do the exercise every day carefully and repeatedly, and try to avoid unevenness.

学習の仕方

これは移弦のむずかしいところで、多くの生徒はここであせったり混乱したりする。易しそうでけっして易しくなく、十分熟練を要するところです。とくに拍子のとり方、移弦のうまさを訓練する必要がある。

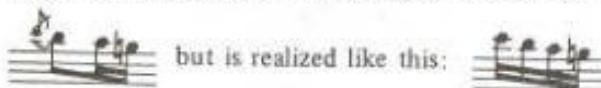

毎日ていねいに繰り返し練習し、乱れをなくすように。

Point of Practice

学習の仕方

As usual in the old notation, the first note of this figure, which is not a note of the chord, is written like this:

Since Mozart himself did not clearly differentiate this point in his notation, later performers seem to have interpreted this notation according to their idea of how it might have been executed in Mozart's days. Joachim, too, indicated two alternatives;

古典の書法として、このはじめの音は和声外の音から始まる場合に記され、 と演奏されます。

モーツァルト自身がこの点をあまり刻明に区別して記していないかったために、後から演奏者たちが、実際に演奏されたであろうものを想像して、いろいろ区別して弾いているのではないかと考えられます。

ヨアヒムもこの点について2つを示している。

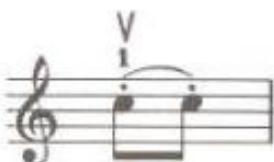

The notation chosen here is what has been widely adopted among performers.

In playing , pitches often become inaccurate and the rhythm easily becomes uneven. Since the reason is insufficient practice on the D string, pupils need to do these exercises repeatedly every day.

音程が不正確になりやすく拍子がそろいにくい。D弦で弾くためであり、D弦上の練習不足のためであるので毎日繰り返す必要がある。
